Item – 4

SUBJECT	COMPETITION CONFIRMED
----------------	------------------------------

The ICF, the local organising committee and the French Canoe Federation are pleased to confirm the Canoe Slalom World Cup next week will go ahead as planned.

The competition is considered as a professional sport activity for high performance athletes for participants and organising personal by the local and national authorities.

The competition will be organised behind closed doors.

It is a great news for the athletes and all involved parties.

The success of it will be based on a strict respect of the ICF / PAU 2020 health and sanitary COVID19 protocol by all participants.

Clear guidelines will be communicated this afternoon and will come into force from Monday morning.

Updated competition schedule and training schedule will be distributed this afternoon.
