CHAPTER I - GENERAL PROVISIONS

ARTICLE 1 - NAME PRINCIPALS AND RECOGNITION

1. With the object of encouraging the development of the sport of canoeing and of strengthening the bonds of friendship that unite those who practice in it, the Austrian, Danish, German and Swedish Canoe Associations founded the INTERNATIONALE REPRÄSENTANTSCHAFT FÜR KANUSPORT (IRK) in Copenhagen on 20th January 1924.

2. The Congress held in Stockholm from 7th to 10th June, 1946 decided that the Federation be called THE INTERNATIONAL CANOE FEDERATION (ICF).

3. The ICF is an international non-governmental non-profit world organisation for multidiscipline canoeing and paddling activities of unlimited duration.

4. The ICF is recognised by the INTERNATIONAL OLYMPIC COMMITTEE (IOC), the International Paralympic Committee (IPC), the GENERAL ASSOCIATION OF INTERNATIONAL SPORTS FEDERATIONS (GAISF) and the ASSOCIATION OF SUMMER OLYMPIC INTERNATIONAL FEDERATIONS (ASOIF), as the sole controlling body for international canoeing and paddling.

5. The ICF recognises Continental Associations / National Federations under the following conditions:

(a) National Federations may group themselves into Continental Associations for the purpose of promoting and regulating canoe sports within their respective Continent.

(b) The Continental Associations must establish a constitution. The general principles, rules and policy must conform to those of the ICF and be approved by the ICF Executive Committee.

(c) Only National Federations that are members of the ICF may affiliate to Continental Associations.

(d) Continental and Regional Championships must be conducted under the guidance of the Executive Committee of the respective Continental Association in full compliance with the ICF Statutes and Competition Rules.

(e) The ICF President or his delegate may attend meetings of the Board of Directors and Congresses of the Continental Associations recognised by the ICF.

(f) Representatives elected by each Continental Association (where applicable) are members of the ICF Board of Directors and will be the ICF Board of Directors Members for that Continent.

(g) The Continental Associations are advisors to the ICF on matters concerning their members. They assist the ICF in the supervision of any international events held in the given Continent and report to the ICF on these events.

(h) During Continental Championships, the Continental Associations have the authority to suspend competitors or officials and to take disciplinary action against them. They must report these facts to the ICF who in turn may extend these disciplinary measures to a worldwide level. Continental Associations may not suspend National Federations but may propose such measures to the ICF.

(i) Continental Associations cannot issue ICF International Technical Official Cards.

BYELAW TO ARTICLE 1

1. The ICF is a multi-sport organisation, which consists of all canoeing and paddling activities. The ICF embraces every activity in which a paddler is facing the direction of travel with a single or double bladed paddle.

2. Continental Associations may develop new disciplines that are not part of the ICF official disciplines, always requiring the approval of the ICF Executive Committee.

ARTICLE 2 - PURPOSE

1. The principles of the ICF shall be:

- general unity of action, mutual respect of National Federations in their dealings with one another;
- Rejection of discrimination of any kind including but not limited to racial, gender, political, or religious grounds;
- Rejection of all forms of harassment and abuse.

Paddling is a competitive and recreational activity for all, regardless of race, age, gender, religion or ability.

2.The ICF shall observe the general and fundamental principles of the Olympic Charter and Paralympic Charter, the IOC manual on sport and the environment and no provision of these Rules shall be deemed to conflict with or derogate from those principles.

3.The ICF shall not interfere with its National Federations, however, shall monitor all activities, which affect the ICF either in part or in its entirety.

4. All meetings and competitions of the ICF shall be held in countries, which guarantee unhindered, equal access to all officials, competitors and officers of the ICF under the correct denomination of their countries.

5.The ICF and its members will support a fair representation and equality (eg. gender, religion, race, disability etc) in all canoeing activities and in the management of the sport.

BYELAW TO ARTICLE 2

1.All NF members, continental members, ICF Staff and members of the ICF Executive Committee, members of the ICF Board of Directors and members of the ICF Standing Committees must strictly adhere to and observe the ICF Code of Ethics and the IOC Code of Ethics (as referred to in the Olympic Charter).

2.In particular they must declare direct or indirect pecuniary or non-pecuniary interests and may not profit directly or indirectly from the sport. Any member having a pecuniary interest of any kind may not be directly involved in any financial transactions on behalf of the ICF. If any interest is not declared, then the ICF Board of Directors may expel the Member.

3.The ICF Executive Committee or Board of Directors members may not participate in the discussion or vote in respect of a matter in which they may have financial, conflictual interests or any mutual benefits relating to canoeing and themselves.

4.Prevention of the manipulation of Competitions

- 4.1 This rule incorporates by reference the Olympic Movement Code on the Prevention of the Manipulation of Competitions of 8 December 2015 as well as any amendments made thereafter by the IOC.
- 4.2 Every reference to “sporting Organisation” in the Code shall mean “the International Canoe Federation and its affiliated members”

ARTICLE 3 - OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the ICF shall be:

1. At an international level with the priority given to maintaining canoeing as an Olympic sport.
2. To ensure that both genders are represented on all decision-making bodies, including working committees appointed from time to time.
3. To settle disputes that may arise within the sport among its National Federations and to be the highest authority.
4. To ensure that international competitions are governed by Competition Rules adapted to the development of the sport of canoeing.
5. To encourage and safeguard the organisation of international competitions open to all National Federations.
6. To establish international championships.
7. To co-operate with the Organising Committee of Olympic, Paralympic, Continental and Regional Games.
8. To encourage the establishment of National Federations in countries where no such organisation exists.
9. To take measures to prevent endangering the health of athletes.
10. To encourage the development of recreational canoeing as a contribution to the healthy development of all ages.

11. To protect nature and pursue the rights of access for the sport of canoeing by adopting environmentally friendly practices within the sport and respecting other users.

ARTICLE 4 - HEADQUARTERS

The ICF Headquarters shall be in the country decided by the ICF Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 5 - EMBLEM AND FLAG

1. The ICF has the full authority and complete rights for the use of its Flag and Emblem and to assure that they appear at every ICF activity.

2. The ICF may design and use additional types of ICF logo for development, marketing and merchandising purposes.

ARTICLE 6 - ICF AWARDS

The ICF may honour its Members and people and/or associations from outside the sport for their distinguished services with the awards of the following priority:

- Honorary Life President (Eligible after 12 years of service to the ICF)
- Honorary Membership (Eligible after 12 years of service to the ICF)
- Order of Merit
- Medals

BYELAW TO ARTICLE 6

1. National Federations, the ICF Executive Committee, and the ICF Board of Directors may make nominations for all awards.

2. The ICF Board of Directors shall consider all awards.

3. The final decision for Honorary Life President, Honorary Membership lies with the Congress and Order of Merit will be decided by the Board of Directors. The ICF Executive Committee will be responsible for deciding Medals.

ARTICLE 7 - LANGUAGES

1.The official languages of the ICF are English, French, German, Spanish and Russian. In case of discrepancy, the English text shall prevail.

2.All official ICF documents shall be produced in English.

3.At the meetings of the ICF, Members or delegates are entitled to speak in the language of their country provided that a competent interpreter translates their speech into English.

BYELAW TO ARTICLE 7

1. All expenses of the translator must be borne by the representatives themselves.

CHAPTER II - MEMBERSHIP

ARTICLE 8 - ELIGIBILITY

1. Members of the ICF are those National Federations, which have been approved by the Congress.
2. Between Congresses, the ICF Executive Committee has the right to accept a National Federation into provisional Membership, subject to ratification by the Congress.
3. A provisional Member is entitled to compete in all international and ICF competitions and to attend the Congress without the right to speak or vote until their approval.

ARTICLE 9 - ADMISSION TO MEMBERSHIP

A National Federation wishing to become a Member of the ICF shall:

1. Make a formal application, signed by its President and Secretary General, to the ICF Executive Committee.
2. Submit with its application:
 - A copy of its Statutes in English
 - A list of its officers
 - A certificate from its Olympic Committee or highest sport authority stating that the National Federation is recognised as being the controlling body for canoeing in its country
 - Information on the number of clubs and Members and on their activity in the various disciplines
 - A Strategic plan and a formal undertaking to observe the Statutes, Competition Rules and Regulations of the ICF.

BYELAW TO ARTICLE 9

1. The formal application with all necessary documents and Membership Fees (if any) are to be sent to the ICF Headquarters.

2. The ICF Executive Committee shall examine the application and submit to the Congress a recommendation on its acceptance.

3. Applications for Membership shall be considered by the next Congress and must be accepted by at least two-thirds (2/3) majority of the votes.

4. If the application for Membership is rejected, any amount paid will be refunded.

5. If the application for Membership is accepted, the first 5 years of Membership (starting from the year after the Congress of acceptance) are free of Membership Fee.

ARTICLE 10 - RESIGNATION

1. A National Federation wishing to withdraw from the Membership in the ICF shall give notice of resignation in writing to the ICF Executive Committee.

2. An affiliated National Federation cannot be regarded as having renounced its Membership of the ICF until all outstanding dues have been paid.

BYELAW TO ARTICLE 10

After the decision of the ICF Executive Committee the ICF Secretary General shall immediately inform the National Federations affiliated to the ICF on any resignations submitted.

ARTICLE 11 - MEMBERSHIP FEE

1. Members of the ICF shall pay an annual Membership Fee.

2. There are 3 (three) categories of the Membership Fee:

- 1st category - low Membership Fee
- 2nd category - medium Membership Fee
- 3rd category - full Membership Fee

3. The Congress shall fix the annual Membership Fee for each category payable to the ICF every 4 years in the year of the Olympic Games.

4. The ICF Board of Directors shall establish the list of National Federations in each category every 4 years in the year of the Olympic Games. The decision about the classification of each country will be based on International Economic Indicators.

BYELAW TO ARTICLE 11

1. The annual Membership Fee is to be paid to the ICF Headquarters.

2. In order to retain the ICF Membership, a National Federation must pay the annual Membership Fee (if applicable) during the first quarter of each year, no later than the 31st March, to the ICF Headquarters.

ARTICLE 12 - LATE MEMBERSHIP FEE

National Federations whose Membership Fee and all other outstanding fees/debts are unpaid by the latest 30 days prior to the Congress shall be able to attend the Congress but will not be eligible to vote or take part in discussions at the Congress or give a proxy vote to another National Federation.

National Federations whose Membership Fees/debts are unpaid may not take part in ICF Competitions and any other international competition until all outstanding monies have been paid.

ARTICLE 13 - EXPULSION

If a National Federation does not continue the Membership duties of the ICF or continues to have unpaid debts and does not rectify the situation by a date fixed by the ICF Executive Committee, or if there is any other justified reasons, (e.g. The violation of written agreements between a National Federation and the ICF or the non-compliance with any financial obligation to the ICF) the Congress may expel that National Federation. See Art. 42/43.

CHAPTER III - ADMINISTRATION

ARTICLE 14 - ADMINISTRATION

The administration of the ICF shall consist of:

1. The Congress.
2. The ICF Board of Directors.
3. The ICF Executive Committee.

ARTICLE 15 - CONGRESS

1. The Congress is the supreme authority of the ICF.
2. All decisions of the Congress are final (except in the case of Article 29 b 1 & 2).
3. The Congress consists of delegates of National Federations who have paid their ICF membership fees/debts in due time.
4. The Congress shall be chaired by the ICF President or, in the absence of the ICF President, one of the ICF Vice-Presidents.

BYELAW TO ARTICLE 15

1. The Chair of the Congress decides the number and the duration of the speeches allowed to the delegates.
2. The organiser of the Congress has to provide facilities and interpreters for simultaneous translation in the official languages of the ICF and when applicable, in its own language.

ARTICLE 16 - DELEGATES

1. Each National Federation has the right to appoint up to three (3) delegates from its National Federation to the Congress one of whom has the right to vote. If there are three (3) delegates, at least one (1) should be from the other gender. Delegates must be official members of that particular National Federation (Eg. Staff, Board Member, official).

2. A National Federation may be represented at the Congress by another Member association.

3. Members of the ICF Board of Directors may represent their own National Federation as delegates to the Congress.

4. Delegates must give proof of their identity.

BYELAW TO ARTICLE 16

1. At least thirty (30) days before the opening of the Congress, each National Federation shall forward to the ICF Headquarters the names of its delegates and any proxy they hold, indicating the delegate exercising the voting right.

2. The National Federations must notify the ICF Secretary General of any change of their delegates at the latest by the accreditation time for the Congress. This must be done in writing and signed by the President and/or Secretary General of the National Federation concerned.

3. Before the opening of the Congress, a commission made up of three (3) persons will verify the credentials of the delegates. This commission consists of the ICF Secretary General and two Members of the ICF Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 17 - ORDINARY CONGRESS

An ordinary Congress shall take place every even year at the place and date decided by the preceding Congress. Should circumstances dictate, the ICF Board of Directors may change the date and/or venue of the Congress.

There will be a Congress every four years in the year of the Olympic Games for all elected positions to the ICF. There will be a Technical Congress that concentrates on the requirements for the sport held every four years between Election Congresses.

The Congress has the responsibility to:

- Conduct elections of ICF Board Members with the exception of the Continental Presidents and Continental Members

- Approve changes to the ICF Statutes, Sports Governance Rules (CR) and give direction to ICF Principle Rules (PR) that relate to all disciplines of the sport
- Agree the ICF Strategic Plan as proposed by the ICF Board of Directors
- Approve the indicative budget and financial strategy of the ICF as proposed by the ICF Board of Directors
- Consider the proposals submitted by National Federations, ICF Executive Committee and the ICF Board of Directors

ARTICLE 18 - EXTRAORDINARY CONGRESS

1. An Extraordinary Congress may be called when:
 - a) at least one third of Members submit a request in writing/electronically to the ICF Secretary General giving reasons thereof; or
 - b) when the ICF Executive Committee considers that circumstances have arisen warranting an Extraordinary Congress.
2. The ICF Executive Committee shall fix the place and date of an Extraordinary Congress.
3. An Extraordinary Congress shall only deal with such matters, which have caused the meeting to be convened.

ARTICLE 19 - AGENDA FOR ORDINARY CONGRESS

The agenda for an ordinary meeting of the Congress shall at least include:

- Opening of the session
- Roll-call of delegates and establishing of the quorum
- Appointment of scrutinisers for the period of the Congress
- ICF President's report
- ICF Secretary General's report
- ICF Treasurer's report on financial matters and approval
- Auditors' report and approval
- Discussions and resolution on the proposals submitted by National Federations, the ICF

Executive Committee and the ICF Board of Directors

- Reports on Membership applications
- Election of the ICF President
- Election of the ICF Vice-Presidents
- Election of the ICF Treasurer
- Election of the Chairs of the ICF Standing Committees
- Presentation of Continental Representatives as applicable by their respective Continental Associations or by delegates present at the Congress from a Continent where there is no Continental association recognised by the ICF
- Establishment of the ICF Strategic Plan for the coming years
- Fixing the annual ICF Membership Fee for the next two years
- Establishment of the Budget for the next two years
- General information
- Establishing time and place for the next Congress
- Closing of the Congress

BYELAW TO ARTICLE 19

1.The ICF Executive Committee must approve the items on the agenda of the Congress and their order of discussion.

2.The Congress may only discuss items on the agenda.

3.In exceptional circumstances, the ICF Executive Committee may request a simple majority approval by Congress to include additional relevant agenda items.

ARTICLE 20 - SUBMISSION OF PROPOSALS TO THE CONGRESS

1.Each Member of the ICF, the ICF Board of Directors and the ICF Executive Committee has the right to submit proposals to the Congress.

2.Proposals originating from National Federations signed by their President and/or Secretary General must be received by the ICF Secretary General not later than 1st March of the year during which the Congress is held.

3. All applications and proposals have to be produced in English and must be sent in written and/or electronic form with the appropriate signatures (i.e. electronic signature).

4. Candidates for election to the ICF Board of Directors may be nominated by their National Federation, which should notify the ICF Headquarters three (3) months before the Congress.

This must be done in writing or electronically and signed by the President and/or Secretary General of the National Federation concerned.

5. The ICF Board of Directors with the agreement of the National Federation concerned may also make nominations.

6. A National Federation may not nominate the same person to more than one position on the ICF Board of Directors.

7. Applications for the next Congress (to be hosted in 2 years time) may be submitted by the National Federations to the ICF Headquarters up until three (3) months before the Congress.

ARTICLE 21 - AMENDMENTS TO THE STATUTES AND COMPETITION RULES

1. The Congress may amend the Statutes every two years.

2. The Congress may amend Sport Governance Rules (CR) and Principle Rules (PR) every two years.

3. The ICF Board of Directors may amend the Byelaws of the Statutes and the ICF Sports Rules (SR) every two years during the first ICF Board of Directors meeting in the year of the Congress.

4. Proposals for changes to the Statutes and Byelaws, Sport Governance Rules (CR), Principle Rules (PR), and ICF Sports Rules (SR) originating from National Federations signed by their President and/or Secretary General must be received by the ICF Secretary General not later than 1st March of the year during which the Congress is held.

5. The ICF Board of Directors shall have the power to amend or change a decision of Congress provided that:

- a. The ICF President has decided that the circumstances which prevailed at the time the decision was taken by Congress have changed significantly to a material extent; and
- b. The decision by the ICF Board of Directors is taken by not less than 80% of the members present.

BYELAW TO ARTICLE 21

In exceptional circumstances where clearly ICF Sports Rules (SR) need to be amended in order for the sport to function efficiently rules can be decided upon in the first ICF Board of Directors meeting of that year.

ARTICLE 22 - QUORUM

The Congress has the power to act if at least one half of the recognised National Federations entitled to vote are represented.

ARTICLE 23 - VOTING

1. When voting each National Federation will be entitled to have one (1) vote.

2. A voting delegate is entitled to carry only one (1) proxy vote. Voting in writing without representation in person is not permitted.

3. Members of the ICF Board of Directors are entitled to be present at the Congress and to speak but not to vote unless such Member of the ICF Board of Directors represents his/her National Federation as a delegate with the right to vote.

4. Voting for personal elections shall be by secret ballot (electronic or paper form). To have a secret vote for other matters requires a simple majority.

5. Voting at the Congress other than in election may also take place by roll call in alphabetical order, except where the Chair is satisfied after a show of hands then such procedure is not necessary.

ARTICLE 24 - MAJORITIES

1. The Congress shall pass resolutions, unless stated otherwise in these Statutes, by means of voting with simple majority of votes of the Members represented.

2. The election of Members to different seats shall take place with absolute majority of votes of the Members represented. If additional ballots are necessary, the candidate obtaining the lowest number of votes in each ballot shall be eliminated until one candidate obtains an absolute majority.

3. A decision to alter any of the Statutes can only be taken at a Congress with two thirds (2/3) majority of all National Federations represented at the Congress and entitled to vote.

Alteration of the ICF Byelaws can be agreed by simple majority of the ICF Board of Directors.

4. A decision to alter the Sport Governance Rules can be taken at a Congress by absolute majority.

5. If there is a tied vote on any matter the Chair shall have a casting vote;

BYELAW TO ARTICLE 24

The candidate obtaining the lowest number of votes in each ballot shall be eliminated until an absolute majority is achieved for the place or places available. If an absolute majority is not achieved then the place or places will not be filled.

(For example if there are three places available and only two candidates achieve an absolute majority, then only two of the places will be filled.)

Two-thirds majority is 2/3 of the total number of National Federations present with the right to vote.

Absolute majority is half the number of National Federations present with the right to vote plus one.

Simple majority is more votes cast in favour than against.

ARTICLE 25 - DATE OF TAKING EFFECT

All decisions of the Congress including changes to Statutes and Bye-laws take effect immediately after the Congress, except for:

- The amendment of Sport Governance Rules (CR), Principle Rules (PR) and ICF Sport Rules (SR), which take effect as of 1st January of the following year.
- New Members of the ICF, once approved, may participate in the Congress with full voting rights.

ARTICLE 26 - ICF BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. The role of the ICF Board of Directors is to deal with all matters of broad ICF policy between ICF Congresses. The Board should be committed to the legal and ethical requirements of good governance. Board members have a general and fiduciary duty to act honestly, in good faith, and in the best interests of the ICF at all times.

2. The ICF Board of Directors is composed of the following persons:

- Elected persons

ICF President

Three ICF Vice Presidents, represented by both genders,

ICF Treasurer,

Up to four (4) Members of the European Continent represented by at least one female,

Up to three (3) Members of the American and Asian Continents represented by at least one female,

Up to two (2) Members of each of the Oceanic and African Continents represented by at least one female,

Chairs of the ICF Standing Committees (See Art 32.1).

Appointed Member

ICF Secretary General

3. The ICF Board of Directors will actively strive to achieve equitable representation of both genders.

BYELAW TO ARTICLE 26

1. The ICF Board of Directors shall meet at least once a year.

2. The ICF Board of Directors shall form a quorum if and when, after being duly summoned, at least half of its members are present.

3. The National Federations shall bear the travelling expenses of their Members taking part in the sessions of the ICF Board of Directors as at ICF Congresses.

4. If necessary, ICF Board of Directors meetings and voting may be held via e-mails and conference calls.

ARTICLE 27 - ELECTION OF MEMBERS TO THE ICF BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. The ICF President, Vice Presidents, and the ICF Treasurer shall be elected at the Congress held in the year of the Olympic Games.

2. The ICF President shall be elected individually. The ICF Vice-Presidents and the ICF Treasurer will be elected collectively. The Chairs of the ICF Standing Committees will also be elected collectively.

3. If a member of the Board of Directors is a successful candidate for another position on the Board then he/she has to resign from a position.

4. Assembly of the respective Continental Association shall elect the Continental Members of the ICF Board of Directors for a period of four (4) years. When such Continental Association does not exist, only the delegates of the respective Continent present shall elect the Continental Members to the ICF Board of Directors. The Congress shall elect the Chairs of the ICF Standing Committees for a period of four (4) Years. Except the Chair of the Athlete's Committee who will be elected by their own members.

5. The Continental Members of the ICF Board of Directors must come from different countries and at least one must be female.

6. A Member of the ICF Board of Directors may only hold one function on the ICF Board of Directors; as ICF Executive Committee Member, Continental Representative, or Chair of an ICF Standing Committee.

7. A Member of the ICF Board of Directors may not serve as member of an ICF Standing Committee at the same time. Therefore, after the election the member has to resign from the other position.

BYELAW TO ARTICLE 27

1. All elected Members of the ICF Board of Directors are eligible for re-election if duly nominated.

2. All members of the ICF Board of Directors can serve a maximum of 3 consecutive terms of office.

3. Members of the ICF Board of Directors are not able to discuss or vote on any issue or subject in which they could have pecuniary interests, benefits or advantages or give rise to conflictual interests relating to canoeing and the member's role. Each member must abide by the ICF's Code of Ethics, Code of Conduct and declare all conflicts of interest.

ARTICLE 28 - VACANCIES

1. In the case of death, resignation or suspension (by the ICF Board of Directors after consultation with the National Federation concerned see Article 42) of a Member of the ICF Board of Directors, a substitute can be nominated by the ICF Board of Directors or the appropriate Continental Association until the next ordinary or Extraordinary Congress.

2. If and when the ICF President is temporarily prevented from fulfilling the duties of office, the position shall be taken by a nominated ICF Vice President. If no ICF Vice President is available, the ICF Board of Directors shall appoint one of its Members to take the position of the ICF President.

3. The ICF Board of Directors shall appoint one of its Members to take the place of the ICF Treasurer if required.

4. The ICF Board of Directors shall appoint a Member of the respective ICF Standing Committee to act as Chair if required.

ARTICLE 29 - DUTIES OF THE ICF BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The duties and responsibilities of the ICF Board of Directors shall be at least:

- a) to be accountable and supportive to the ICF President;
- b) To take steps as may be necessary to achieve the objectives laid down in Article 3 of the Statutes;
- c) To ensure the implementation of the decisions made by the Congress;
- d) Recognise the importance of the ICF Statutes, ICF Rules, ICF Strategic Plan, employment contracts and relevant laws in line with ICF Congress resolutions whilst making decisions in the interest of the sport;
- e) Have a thorough understanding of the governance environment of the ICF including its strategic objectives, philosophy and stakeholder relationships;
- f) Maintain a commitment to the principle of Board collective responsibility and to represent the ICF in a positive, professional and appropriate manner including the commitment to accepting Board decisions;
- g) To appoint the Members of the ICF Standing Committees following the recommendations of the Chair of each ICF Standing Committee concerned; to appoint Chairs of ICF Standing Committees who are not members of the ICF Board of Directors;
- h) To clarify and to adopt where necessary rules and regulations coming from ICF Standing Committees;
- i) To examine the proposals received from National Federations for submission to the Congress and to take a position on those issues;
- j) To discuss and propose the budget of the ICF for submission to the Congress;
- k) To examine the financial situation of the ICF and to submit a proposal for the annual Membership Fee to the Congress;
- l) Select host cities for ICF events based on objective criteria and analysis provided in reports from the Technical Committees and the ICF Headquarters;
- m) Agree and submit the ICF Strategic Plan to the Congress;
- n) To appoint commissions or working groups as necessary.
- o) Advise the Board of any potential conflicts of interest, which would compromise that Board Directors ability to contribute to any issue before the Board in accordance with the conflicts of interest policy and the ICF Code of Ethics.

- p) Observe the confidentiality of non-public information acquired in the role as Board Directors.
- q) To appoint or dismiss the ICF Secretary General if deemed necessary following an appropriate review
- r) Be part of the jury or competition commissions when required at ICF Events
- s) Sign and abide by the ICF Code of Ethics and Code of Conduct.

BYELAW TO ARTICLE 29

Any ICF Board of Directors member who fails to carry out the reasonable requests of the ICF Executive Committee may be suspended from the ICF Board of Directors at their next meeting by not less than 80% of the ICF Board of Directors members present.

ARTICLE 30 - ICF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

An Executive Committee consisting of the following persons shall manage the ICF:

- The President
- Three Vice-Presidents representing both genders
- The Treasurer
- Five Continental Presidents
- Canoe Sprint Chair
- Canoe Slalom Chair
- Athletes Chair
- The non-voting Secretary General

ARTICLE 31 - DUTIES OF THE ICF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The role of the ICF Executive Committee is to support the work of the ICF President, facilitated through the ICF Secretary General and to manage the work of the ICF between meetings of the ICF Board of Directors; with particular reference to the organisation's objectives as laid down in article 3 of the ICF Statutes and in line with the Strategic Plan agreed by the ICF Congress.

In addition to the responsibilities of being a Member of the ICF Board of Directors the key duties of an Executive Committee member are at least:

- a) To ensure the implementation of the decisions made by the Congress and the ICF Board of Directors
- b) To take such steps as may be necessary to achieve the objectives laid down in Article 3 to the Statutes;
- c) To ensure the maintenance of proper governance standards and strive for gender equality in the organisation of the ICF Competitions, Olympic and multi-sports Games, canoeing events and all other events and competitions conducted under the authority of the ICF;
- d) To ensure the observation of the Statutes, Competition Rules and Regulations of the ICF and whenever necessary to interpret these Statutes, Competition Rules and Regulations;
- e) To ensure the representation of the ICF at all major ICF events by its President or by one of its Members;
- f) To be responsible for the administrative and financial directives of the ICF. To this end, the ICF Executive Committee will work with the administrative offices with remunerated personnel to achieve the strategic plan outlined by the ICF Congress;
- g) To take any decisions appropriate to the circumstances in the interest of the sport of canoeing;
- h) To examine the proposals received for submission to the Congress and to express the ICF Executive Committee's view on these to the ICF Board of Directors;
- i) To give directives to the work of the ICF Standing Committees;
- j) To keep Member National Federations informed as to the position of the ICF and its activities;

The role of the Continental Presidents

The role of the ICF Continental Presidents is

- To represent the interests and views of the continent within the ICF Executive Committee discussions and decisions that are made.
- To represent the ICF within their Continents as part of the ICF Executive Committee.

The Role of the Olympic Disciplines Technical Chairs

The ICF Canoe Sprint and Canoe Slalom Chairs will hold a place on the ICF Executive Committee to ensure that discussions in respect of the Olympic disciplines are well informed and that liaison with future Games organisers and the IOC is maintained and are prioritised.

In addition to their responsibilities as a technical Chair to the Executive Committee their duties will be at least:

- To co-ordinate and oversee the technical work of the Olympic Disciplines;
- To chair the Olympic Disciplines Technical Committees;
- Work closely and advise the ICF Headquarters technical work for Olympic Disciplines;
- To be responsible for operations of International Technical Officials at events;
- To give advice, opinions and direction to the ICF Executive Committee and to the Board of Directors in co-operation with the ICF Headquarters staff.

BYELAW TO ARTICLE 31

1. The ICF Executive Committee shall meet at least three times annually.
2. When the ICF President deems it necessary, urgent matters can be dealt by voting electronically or by telephone.
3. The ICF Executive Committee can be convened to act as the Finance Committee if determined by the ICF President.
4. The ICF Executive Committee shall invite the Chair of the ICF Standing Committees to the discussion of issues that fall within the competence of their particular Committee.
5. The ICF Executive Committee is responsible for reaching objectives, particularly those which are not directly executed by an ICF Standing Committee, and principally those which are coordinated by the IOC.
6. The ICF Executive Committee shall form a quorum if and when, after being duly summoned, at last half of its members are present.

7. The National Federations shall bear the travelling expenses of the ICF Executive Committee.

ARTICLE 32 - ICF STANDING COMMITTEES

1. All ICF Standing Committees are consultative organs of the ICF Board of Directors and of the ICF Executive Committee and are responsible for carrying out their policies. The ICF Standing Committees (except the Athletes' Committee) are composed of up to four (4) Members, of which at least one (1) member should be of the other gender, nominated by the National Federations prior to the deadline as set by the ICF Executive Committee and appointed by the ICF Board of Directors for a period of four (4) years, which may be renewed.

The ICF Board of Directors appoints these members for the same four-year periods as the Chair of that committee.

Regarding the ICF Standing committees for sport disciplines, the Congress will only elect a Chair if the participation at World Championships in the previous 4 years contains an average of 20 participating National Federations from at least 3 continents.

If there are fewer participating National Federations or Continents, then the Chair will be appointed by the ICF Board of Directors and he/she will not be a member of the ICF Board of Directors.

2. Athletes' Committee consists of 7 members including a Chair. The Committee is elected as follows:

- 2 representatives of the Canoe Sprint discipline (1 man and 1 woman) and 2 representatives of the Canoe Slalom discipline (1 man and 1 woman) elected by athletes the year after the Summer Olympic Games
- The election process and the counting of the votes will be monitored by an independent individual
- 2 representatives of the non-Olympic disciplines and 1 representative of Paracanoe will be appointed by the ICF Board of Directors based on the recommendations of the ICF Athletes Committee
- The Athletes Committee Chair is elected from amongst its elected members.
- National Federations will be informed about the election rules 3 months prior to the World

Championships. The candidates will be presented to the ICF at least 30 days prior to the competition where the elections will occur

- Members of the Athletes Committee automatically become part of the ICF Standing Committee in their respective disciplines, with a maximum of one (1) member per discipline.

3. In the case of forming a new ICF Standing Committee at the Congress, the ICF Board of Directors appoints the Chair and the members for the first 4 years.

New disciplines introduced need to be established for 4 years before they may have representation on the ICF Board of Directors, but they may be represented by the Competition Commission.

BYELAW TO ARTICLE 32

1. A Chair who is not a member of the ICF Board of Directors will be appointed by the ICF Board of Directors from nominations received from the National Federations.

1.1 Members are appointed by the ICF Board of Directors from nominations by National Federations sent to the ICF Secretary General.

2. For the sake of fulfilling their working plan the ICF Standing Committees shall hold at least one session a year.

3. The ICF Board of Directors may co-opt members to the ICF Standing Committees for periods up to two years renewable by the ICF Board of Directors.

4. The ICF Board of Directors may appoint advisors to the ICF Standing Committees for up to two years renewable by the ICF Board of Directors.

5. The Members of the ICF Executive Committee and Athlete's Committee may attend the meetings of all ICF Standing Committees.

6. At all meetings minutes must be kept and a list of attendance signed.

7. The sessions of all ICF Standing Committees are closed.

8. The participation in the meetings is compulsory for the Members. Members absent for justified reasons must advise of their absence prior to the meeting.

9. The ICF Board of Directors has the power to suspend those Members of ICF Standing Committees who have been absent for two consecutive meetings without a written justification.

10. In case of necessity, the ICF Executive Committee has the right to replace Members of the ICF Standing Committees being unable to satisfy the working requirements of the ICF Board of Directors or having discontinued to serve the ICF in the ICF Standing Committees. The new Members serve until the next appointment of the ICF Standing Committee.

11. The National Federations shall bear the travelling expenses of their Members taking part in the sessions of the ICF Standing Committees. The ICF will pay the travelling expenses for the members of the Athletes' Committee for their annual meeting.

12. The following ICF Standing Committees shall deal with, but are not limited to specific activities of the ICF:

- Canoe Sprint
- Canoe Slalom
- Wildwater Canoeing
- Canoe Marathon
- Canoe Polo
- Dragon Boat
- Medical & Anti-Doping
- Athletes
- Canoe Freestyle
- Canoe Ocean Racing
- Paracanoe

ARTICLE 33 - DUTIES OF THE ICF STANDING COMMITTEES

The Byelaws of the ICF Statutes shall define the duties, authority and field of activity of each ICF Standing Committee.

BYELAW TO ARTICLE 33

1. Each ICF Standing Committee is obliged to draw up and submit the following documents to the ICF Executive Committee for submission to the ICF Board of Directors;

- a) The draft of its working plan and budget for four (4) years;

- h) Represent the ICF at competitions, events, international meetings or other functions that are remitted as part of the position of Secretary General of an International Sports Federation;
- i) Provide support and an initial platform for problem resolution for canoeing issues and matters related to ICF from all stakeholders.

BYELAW TO ARTICLE 37

1. The ICF Secretary General directs the administrative work of the ICF according to his contract of employment.

2. The travel and accommodation expenses of the ICF Secretary General, in connection with the duties of office, are paid by the ICF.

ARTICLE 38 - DUTIES OF THE ICF TREASURER

The ICF Treasurer chairs the Finance Commission and presents the Commission's views to the ICF Congress and Board of Directors. The Treasurer ensures that the Board of Directors are informed in advance of the financial consequences of future plans, monitors financial performance and oversees the appropriate investment of International Canoe Federation Funds. The Treasurer will provide an overview and monitor the day to day work of the ICF Office in managing the operational finances.

BYELAW TO ARTICLE 38

The ICF Treasurer is responsible at least to:

- a) Pay attention to all financial matters of the ICF;
- b) Prepare in consultation with the ICF Executive Committee (Finance Committee) the budget of the ICF for submission to the ICF Board of Directors and Congress;
- c) Work with the ICF Secretary General to review and oversee that expenditure is kept within the limits laid down in the agreed budgets of the ICF;
- d) Have general oversight of the financial records of the ICF;
- e) Ensure the ICF accounts and the report of the auditors are presented to the ICF Executive Committee, the ICF Board of Directors and the Congress;
- f) Provide the ICF Executive Committee and the ICF Board of Directors with a financial report at each meeting.

ARTICLE 39 - DUTIES OF CONTINENTAL

REPRESENTATIVES

The role of the ICF Continental representatives is to provide objective opinions regarding ICF topics which relate to their continent, that could benefit the ICF and the Sport of Canoeing as a whole.

BYELAW TO ARTICLE 39

It is incumbent upon the Continental Representative to:

- a) Be active in their respective continent or region as representative of the ICF;

- b) Carry out all tasks which have been allocated to them by the ICF Executive Committee and by the ICF President;
- c) Promote the development of canoeing in their continent;

- b) The company will audit the accounts of the ICF.
- c) The company will inspect and report on all ICF finances.
- d) The company will act, if requested by the ICF, as a financial adviser to the ICF Executive Committee.

CHAPTER IV - DISCIPLINARY REGULATIONS

ARTICLE 42 - DISCIPLINARY MEASURES

The disciplinary measures of the ICF are:

- a) Caution
- b) Reprimand
- c) Exclusion of some or all Members of a National Federation from participation in the international competitions and ICF Competitions
- d) Suspension
- e) Expulsion
- f) The imposition of a fine

These disciplinary measures can be taken against individuals, Members of a National Federation or National Federations in their entirety for breach of the ICF Statutes, Sport Governance Rules, Principle Rules and ICF Sport Rules, having harmed the interests of the ICF, bringing the sport into disrepute, tarnishing the image or good name of the ICF or for the non-payment of Membership Fees and any other financial obligations to the ICF arising from contractual agreements or any other duties.

Disciplinary measures may also be taken against:

(1) Any athlete, official or member of a National Federation who by word or gesture threatens any Referee, staff, volunteer or other official during the competition and

(2) Athletes, referees and officials who violate the ICF Statutes or Competition Rules during an ICF Competition.

Suspension bars individual Members of a National Federation or the National Federation itself from all rights and prerogatives until the suspension is lifted.

In the case of expulsion of a National Federation its Membership of the ICF ceases.

Disciplinary measures a, b, c, d and f can be taken by the ICF Executive Committee or the ICF Board of Directors. Disciplinary measure (e) must be by the ICF Congress with a two thirds majority of the National Federations represented at the Congress and entitled to vote.

The National Federation can make appeals against a decision of the ICF Executive Committee to the ICF Board of Directors whose decision is final.

A National Federation can make appeals against a decision of the ICF Board of Directors to the Congress whose decision is final.

ARTICLE 43 - DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

1. When a National Federation penalises an athlete or official in connection with an international competition, the ICF Secretary General must be advised immediately. The ICF Secretary General informs all other National Federations.

2. When an athlete commits a violation of the rules while participating in an international competition held in another country the organising National Federation, must send a detailed report to the ICF Secretary General. The ICF Secretary General informs the ICF Executive Committee which, in turn, decides on the appropriate penalties. The organising National Federation cannot penalise athletes from another country, except for eliminating them from the competition.

3. Athletes who believe they have been wronged with respect to international events have the right to submit a written complaint to the ICF through their National Federation.

4.1 All National Federations and athletes shall have the right to be heard before disciplinary measures are taken against them according to the procedures set forth hereunder.

4.2 The ICF Secretary General shall send a registered letter or electronic mail to the athlete or National Federation concerned wherein the contravention alleged against him is set out.

4.3 In the letter the athlete or National Federation shall be afforded a period of 14 calendar days within which to reply to the allegations made against him/her and in which to set out his/her defence thereto. In urgent cases the ICF President may shorten this period.

4.4 Should the athlete or National Federation concerned fail to reply to such letter he/she or it will forfeit the right to any further hearing.

4.5 Should the National Federation or athlete concerned reply to the letter of complaint within the period afforded, the ICF Secretary General shall forthwith advise him/her of the date, time and place at which the disciplinary hearing is to take place.

4.6 The said National Federation or athlete shall be entitled to legal representation at the hearing, but may also appear personally. The National Federation or athlete concerned may further ask leave to be excused from the hearing and to rely on his/her written statement of defence.

CHAPTER V - COURT OF ARBITRATION OF THE ICF

ARTICLE 44 - ESTABLISHMENT

In the case of a dispute, other than at ICF competitions where the ICF Competition Rules apply, a Court of Arbitration of the ICF will be appointed, consisting of three (3) Arbitrators.

Arbitrators will be selected from the list of ICF appointed arbitrators by a draw (secret ballot) at the ICF Headquarters within a time limit of fifteen days set by the ICF Executive Committee upon receipt of the request. The Chair of the arbitration will be decided by mutual agreement of the arbitrators drawn. If mutual agreement is not reached, the ICF Executive Committee shall appoint the Chair.

Each disputing party will have the right to have a representative attend the draw, or request that an auditor of the ICF be present.

A redraw must occur to replace an arbitrator drawn for a dispute who fulfils any of the following criteria:

- the arbitrator is a legal assistant of one of the parties
- the arbitration involves one party where the arbitrator is a member or representative

No matter what the difference between the disputing parties, no case may be taken to a court of law.

The ICF would only recognise and accept the decisions of the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) in Lausanne (Switzerland) should the necessity of an appeal against an ICF decision arise.

In the case of a dispute between a National Federation and the Continental Association of which that Federation is a member; the appeal has to be addressed to the Congress of that Continental Association.

The resolution taken by the Continental Association Congress can be referred to the ICF Court of Arbitration.

BYELAW TO ARTICLE 44

List of Arbitrators

There are to be at least nine (9) arbitrators on the ICF list, with a maximum of twenty (20). In the initial establishment of the list, five (5) arbitrators shall be appointed for a period of four (4) years and four (4) arbitrators for a period of two (2) years. Thereafter, all arbitrators stand on the list for a period of four years. The ICF Board of Directors reviews the list every two years in order to replace the expiring appointments. The list enters into force on 1 January of the following year.

In establishing the list of ICF arbitrators, the ICF Board of Directors shall call upon personalities with full legal training, recognised competence with regard to sports law and/or international arbitration, a good knowledge of the sport of canoeing or at the very least of sport in general, and a good command of the English language. In addition, the ICF Board of Directors shall respect, in principle, the following:

- 3 of the arbitrators selected among the persons proposed by the National Federations
- 3 of the arbitrators selected among the persons proposed by the Continental Associations
- 3 of the arbitrators selected among persons proposed by the ICF Athletes Committee or other sources independent to the ICF and its Continental Associations or NFs

In appointing the personalities who appear on the list of arbitrators, the ICF Board of Directors shall, wherever possible, ensure fair representation of the continents. The ICF Board of Directors has the right to refuse proposals and request further proposals.

ICF arbitrators are bound by the duty of confidentiality. If an ICF arbitrator resigns, dies or is prevented from carrying out his/her functions for any other reason, he/she may be replaced, for the remaining period of his/her mandate.

The ICF Board of Directors has the power to withdraw an arbitrator from the list after three (3) refusals to arbitrate.

The list of ICF arbitrators and all modifications to such list are published.

ARTICLE 45 - DECISION

The decision of the Court of Arbitration of the ICF as well as a complete report on the case must be given in writing, the original to be kept by the Chair and copies to be sent to the parties concerned and the ICF

Executive Committee. The decision must state which of the disputing parties has to bear the costs.

ARTICLE 46 - EXPENSES

The cost of the Court of Arbitration of the ICF must be borne by the party against which the Court has found. Should neither party be found at fault, both parties shall defray the costs in equal parts. The Court is to do everything to keep the costs as low as possible without, however, being detrimental to either the ICF or the parties concerned in the case.

ARTICLE 47 - APPEAL

A party to a dispute has the right to appeal against a decision of the Court of Arbitration of the ICF. Any appeal to a body outside the ICF shall be made exclusively and only to the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) in Lausanne (Switzerland).

ARTICLE 48 - ICF ETHICS COMMISSION

The ICF Ethics Commission forms a part of the ICF Court of Arbitration and is charged with defining and updating a framework of ethical principles, including a Code of Ethics, based upon the values and principles enshrined in the Olympic Charter. In addition, it investigates complaints raised in relation to the non-respect of such ethical principles, including breaches of the Code of Ethics and, if necessary, proposes sanctions to the ICF Board.

The ICF Board, on the recommendation of the ICF President, appoints the Chair of the ICF Ethics Commission. The members of the commission are drawn from the list of ICF appointed arbitrators who will follow the procedures established for a Court of Arbitration in article 44, excepting the appointment of the Chair.

CODE OF ETHICS

48.1 Members of the Board of Directors

1. Shall act honestly and in good faith at all times in the interest of the ICF and its owners/stakeholders, ensuring that all stakeholders are treated fairly according to their rights.
2. Shall carry out their duties in a lawful manner and ensure that the ICF carries out its business in accordance with the law.
3. Shall avoid conflicts of interest in as far as this is possible. Where such conflicts arise, the Board member(s) concerned will act within the terms of the Board's Conflict of Interest Policy.
4. Shall be diligent, attend Board meetings, and allow sufficient time to prepare for Board meetings to allow for full and appropriate participation in the Board's decision making.
5. Shall observe the confidentiality of non-public information acquired by them in their role as Board members and not disclose to any other person such information.
6. Shall act in accordance with their fiduciary duties, complying with the spirit as well as the letter of the law, recognising both the legal and moral duties of the role.
7. Shall be loyal and supportive to the Board, abiding by Board decisions once reached.
8. Shall observe the IOC Code of ethics as referred to in the Olympic Charter.

48.2 The Board of Directors

1. Shall meet according to the ICF Statutes to monitor the management and performance of the ICF.
2. Shall ensure that there is an appropriate separation of duties and responsibilities between the Board & Executive, and the Secretary General and that no one has unfettered powers of decision-making.
3. Shall ensure that the independent views of Board members are given due consideration and weight.
4. Shall ensure that stakeholders are provided with an accurate and balanced view of the ICF's performance including both financial and service provision.
5. Shall regularly review its own performance as the basis for its own development and quality assurance.
6. Shall ensure that the ICF's assets are protected.

48.3 Ethics Commission Chair

1. Notice of all Complaints and Disputes in respect of ethical matters shall be given to the Ethics

- Commission Chair. The Notice shall be given confidentially in writing/email as soon as practicable and within 15 days of the alleged breach of ethics.
2. On receipt of the Notice, the Ethics Commission Chair shall consider whether or not the Notice shows that there is sufficient evidence for the case to be decided.
 3. The Ethics Commission Chair shall make such decision (having carried out such investigations as he deems appropriate) in his complete discretion and as soon as practicable.
 4. If the Ethics Commission Chair decides that there is a case, he shall forthwith either:
 - (i) refer the matter for mediation, by appointing an appropriate mediator or by appointing an organisation to mediate the dispute and inform the parties and any Interested Parties of such referral;
 - (ii) convene a court of arbitration and ethics resolution in accordance with Article 44 to consider the matter in accordance with the ICF's Code of Ethics.
 5. If the Ethics Commission Chair in his complete discretion does not consider that the Notice shows a case, the person making the Complaint or having the Dispute and the complainant shall be so informed and no further action taken.
 6. The ICF Ethics Commission shall strictly respect the principle of confidentiality at all times.
