

VISA INFORMATION

AMATEUR COMPETITORS AND SPORTS PERSONS

For visa purposes, athletes, coaches, judges, officials and support people are considered to be amateur if they:

- are competing, training or participating without remuneration (or not receiving prize money that is equivalent to a salary or income); and/or
- do not derive an income from their activity or where the activity is not the person's usual occupation

An amateur sports person or team participating in an amateur sporting event or series of events may be eligible to apply for the following visa options:

- Visitor (subclass 600) Tourist stream visa. For more information see: <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/visitor-600/tourist-stream-overseas>
- Electronic Travel Authority – ETA (subclass 601). For eligible passport holders and more information see: <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/electronic-travel-authority-601>
- eVisitor (subclass 651) Tourist Stream visa. For eligible passport holders and more information see: <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/evisitor-651>

NB: Eligibility for an eVisitor visa and ETA will be determined by the country of passport that the applicant holds.

NB: Visa applicants claiming to be an amateur athlete or competitor will be required to provide evidence or supporting documents with their visa application. This may include evidence of their primary source of employment or income, such as a letter from their employer stating their occupation, how long they have been employed, and that they have been given a leave of absence. Students may provide a letter from their educational institution or provider.

NB: Visitor (subclass 600) Tourist visa applicants should include as much information as possible to support their visa applications (see: <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/visitor-600/tourist-stream-overseas#HowTo>). In addition, visa applicants should include the following information:

BIOMETRICS

Visa applicants outside of Australia will need to provide biometrics when they apply for a visa that is part of the Australian biometrics program, or where they are from a country, or located in a country at time of application that is part of the Australian biometrics program.

For information regarding Australia's biometric program including visas and countries that are part of the program, please see: <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/help-support/meeting-our-requirements/biometrics>

VISAS FOR MINORS OR PERSONS UNDER 18 YEARS OF AGE

The Department of Home Affairs must be satisfied when assessing visa applications for minors (applicants under the age of 18 at time of visa application) of parental consent from all responsible parent(s) or guardian(s) to the grant of an Australian visa. Form 1229 – Consent to grant an Australian visa to a child under the age of 18 years, will be required to be submitted as part of the application for a visa as evidence of this consent.

Minors who are travelling without their parent and/or guardian may need to provide additional documentation with their visa application, even if they are travelling with other family members. Form 1257 – Undertaking declaration, will be required for the person nominated as a being responsible for the support and general welfare of a person under 18 years of age.

For further information please see <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/form-listing/forms/1229.pdf>, and <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/form-listing/forms/1257.pdf>

HEALTH AND CHARACTER REQUIREMENTS

Most visa applicants must meet minimum health standards before they can be granted a visa, and the department may assess your health as part of the visa application process. This is referred to as 'meeting the health requirement'. For more information regarding health requirements please see: <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/help-support/meeting-our-requirements/health>

Applicants must be of good character to visa Australia, and must meet the character requirements in order to be granted a visa. For further information regarding character requirements please see: <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/help-support/meeting-our-requirements/character>

VISA APPLICATION PROCESS AND PROCESSING TIMES

Visa applications are assessed on a case-by-case basis, and actual processing times can vary due to individual circumstances including:

- whether the applicant has lodged a complete application, including all necessary supporting documents and paid associated visa application charges
- how promptly the applicant responds to any requests for additional information
- how long it takes to perform required checks on the supporting information provided
- how long it takes to receive information from external agencies, particularly in relation to health, character, and national security requirements
- when the application is lodged taking the current global visa processing times into account

Processing times are impacted each month by cases that are complex, changes to volume of applications and changes to Ministerial Directions. More information about visa processing times please see: <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-processing-times/overview>.

For this reason, we would advise that visa applications be lodged at least 6 to 8 weeks prior to a person's intended date of travel.

NB: In accordance with Australia's Privacy Act 1988, any information an event organiser or participant provides to the IECN will only be used to facilitate visa processing with the relevant Australian visa office overseas.

Travelers should familiarise themselves with Australia's border and entry requirements. For further information, see 'Entering and leaving Australia' at: <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/entering-and-leaving-australia/entering-australia>
